FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT ANNUAL REPORT

FISCAL YEAR 2000

This report contains information in the format prescribed by the EFOIA. Text in italics is the information provided in response to the prescribed headings.

I. Basic Information Regarding Report

- A. Name, title, address, and telephone number of person to be contacted with questions about the report.

*Kathryn I. Dyer
Information and Privacy Coordinator
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington D.C. 20505
(703) 613-1287*

- B. Electronic address for report on the World Wide Web.

<http://www.foia.ucia.gov>

- C. How to obtain a copy of the report in paper form.

Write to the above address.

II. How to Make a FOIA Request

Submit a written request to the mail address above. Transmission via facsimile also is acceptable. The facsimile number is (703) 613-3007. While a simple letter request is sufficient, see our FOIA web site at the electronic address at section I. B., above, for suggestions in making your request.

A. Names, addresses, and telephone numbers of all individual agency components and offices that receive FOIA requests.

The mailing address in section I. A., above, is the single central office that receives all FOIA requests for the CIA.

B. Brief description of the agency's response-time ranges.

For those FOIA cases closed in FY 2000, 80% were closed in slightly less than 2 years; median response time was 0.4 years; average response time was 1.3 years.

*For those Privacy Act cases closed in FY 2000, 80% were closed in less than 4.8 months; median response time 68 days, average response time 5.3 months.

The increase in median and average response times over FY 1999 are attributed to the establishment of a new processing protocol that eliminated the need for two other federal agencies to coordinate a specific category of simple requests. The significant reduction in the number of simple requests consequently resulted in the longer median and average response times.*

C. Brief description of why some requests are not granted.

Requests or parts of requests which are not granted largely have been denied because of compliance with the national security-related laws of the United States. In particular, the CIA, like all other U.S. intelligence agencies, has the responsibility to protect intelligence sources and methods from disclosure. This responsibility frequently prevents the release of records or parts of records. Further details are in section IV. A., below.

III. Definitions of Terms and Acronyms Used in the Report

A. Agency-specific acronyms or other terms.

None.

B. Basic terms.

1. FOIA/PA Request – Freedom of Information Act/Privacy Act request. A FOIA request generally is a request for access to records concerning a third party, an organization, or a particular topic of interest. A Privacy Act request is a request for records concerning oneself; such requests are also treated as FOIA requests. (All requests for access to records, regardless of which law is cited by the requester, are included in this report.)

2. Initial Request – a request to a federal agency for access to records under the Freedom of Information Act.

3. Appeal – a request to a federal agency asking that it review at a higher administrative level a full denial or partial denial of access to records under the Freedom of Information Act, or any other FOIA determination such as a matter pertaining to fees.

4. Processed Request or Appeal – a request or appeal for which an agency has taken a final action on the request or the appeal in all respects.

5. Multi-track Processing – a system in which simple requests requiring relatively minimal review are placed in one processing track and more voluminous and complex requests are placed in one or more other tracks. Requests in each track are processed on a first-in/first-out basis. A requester who has an urgent need for records may request expedited processing (see below).

6. Expedited Processing – an agency will process a FOIA request on an expedited basis when a requester has shown an exceptional need or urgency for the records which warrants prioritization of his or her request over other requests that were made earlier.

7. Simple Request – a FOIA request that an agency using multi-track processing places in its fastest (nonexpedited) track based on the volume and/or simplicity of records requested.

8. Complex Request – a FOIA request that an agency using multi-track processing places in a slower track based on the volume and/or complexity of records requested.

9. Grant – an agency decision to disclose all records in full in response to a FOIA request.

10. Partial Grant – an agency decision to disclose a record in part in response to a FOIA request, deleting information determined to be exempt under one or more of the FOIA's exemptions; or a decision to disclose some records in their entirety, but to withhold others in whole or in part.

11. Denial – an agency decision not to release any part of a record or records in response to a FOIA request because all the information in the requested records is determined by the agency to be exempt under one or more of the FOIA's exemptions, or for some procedural reason (such as because no record is located in response to an FOIA request).

12. Time Limits – the time period in the Freedom of Information Act for an agency to respond to a FOIA request (ordinarily 20 working days from proper receipt of a “perfected” FOIA request).

13. “Perfected” Request – a FOIA request for records which adequately describes the records sought, which has been received by the FOIA office of the agency or agency component in possession of the records, and for which there is no remaining question about the payment of applicable fees.

14. Exemption 3 Statute – a separate federal statute prohibiting the disclosure of a certain type of information and authorizing its withholding under FOIA subsection (b)(3).

15. Median Number – the middle, not average, number. For example, of 3, 7, and 14, the median number is 7.

16. Average Number – the number obtained by dividing the sum of a group of numbers by the quantity of numbers in the group. For example, of 3, 7, and 14, the average number is 8.

IV. Exemption 3 Statutes

A. List of Exemption 3 statutes relied on by agency during current fiscal year.

*National Security Act of 1947, as amended, codified at 50 U.S.C. §403-3(c)(6)
Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949, as amended, codified at 50 U.S.C. §403g.*

1. Brief description of type(s) of information withheld under each statute.

The National Security Act of 1947 exempts from release certain information that, if released, reasonably could be expected to lead to the unauthorized disclosure of intelligence sources and methods which the Director of Central Intelligence (DCI) is charged with protecting.

The Central Intelligence Agency Act of 1949 exempts from release certain enumerated categories of information including CIA’s organization, functions, names, official titles, salaries and/or number of personnel employed by the CIA.

2. Statement of whether a court has upheld the use of each statute. If so, cite example.

CIA v. Sims, 471 U.S. 159, 167(1985). – 103(c)(5) National Security Act of 1947

Minier v. CIA, 88 F.3d 796, 801 (9th Cir. 1996). - Section 6, CIA Act of 1949
